John and Alison Risbridger

John and Alison live just outside of Southampton on the edge of the New Forest and are part of King's Community Church. After 10 years in student ministry, John became Minister and Team Leader of Above Bar Church in Southampton where he and Alison served together for 18 years, alongside John's work as Chair of Council for the Evangelical Alliance and (earlier) Chair of Keswick Ministries.

Alison has been involved in lots of areas of church life and has a particular passion for Internationals, having helped run an English language conversation cafe and taken many internationals through Alpha. She also teaches English to speakers of other languages at Southampton City College.

John is the author of The Message of Worship (part of IVP's Bible Speaks Today series) and has recently completed an MA in Global Ecclesiology at All Nations Christian College. He is passionate about mission being centred on the local church and good news for the whole of life.

Syndesis

We are delighted that Syndesis can lead our worship again for our weekend at home. We look forward to being led in sung worship by Joel, Kaleb, Alex and Ben.

'Syndesis' means 'the state of being bound, linked, or connected together'.

We look forward to worshipping the God who binds us all together in Him.
